

Violin Music

The great violinist, Jascha Heifetz was once quoted that in order to play the violin, you need “the nerves of a bullfighter, the vitality of a night-club hostess, and the concentration of a Buddhist monk.” Considered to be one of the most difficult instruments to play, the violin is nonetheless the voice of the soul. Come and experience our wonderful collection of violin music. From the Baroque masters to violin masterpieces of the 19th and 20th centuries, there is certainly something for everyone.
